FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AWARD

INFORMATION AND SUBMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

Members of the Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association (CVMA) Chapter 32-2 have assisted the Southern Arizona Veteran community for approximately 10 years. We are passionate about our mission which is best and simply stated by our creed: Vets Helping Vets. CVMA Chapter 32-2 relishes the opportunity to give back to the community by either helping one veteran at a time, or by supporting other veteran organizations fulfill their mission.

The “Vets Helping Vets Financial Assistance Award” has been established to support Veterans in need in the Green Valley, Sahuarita, and Santa Cruz County area. To qualify for a Financial Award, you must be a Veteran, the family member of a Veteran, a Veteran Organization, or planning a project that benefits Veterans. Examples of financial award requests may include items such as: assist with gaps in VA services, dental or eye care, home or business repairs, vocational training, service dog training, school tuition/books, small business/organization needs, projects that support Veterans.

Submit the following items for consideration of a Financial Assistance Award:

1. Completed application.
2. A 250-1,000-word statement on how the funds will be used if awarded. Include the specific dollar amount you are requesting, not to exceed $1,000.
3. Supporting documentation of the following:
  - a. Location of individual residence, organization or business address, or location where Veteran project will be impacted (ie: copy of utility bill or organization letterhead) Must be in the Green Valley, Sahuarita or Santa Cruz County area.
  - b. Verification of Veteran status (ie: DD214 or organization letterhead)
  - c. Documentation of what funds will be used for if awarded (ie: quote or invoices for needed services; plan for project in support of veterans)
  - d. Documentation of financial need (ie: pay statement or financial statement supporting the need for financial assistance)
